A. F. L. and C. I. O. Join In Refusal to Resume Defense Production

(Earlier Story on Page A-7.) By the Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23 .-Striking A. F. L. and C. I. O. machinist unions this afternoon rejected terms of a "back-towork" move proposed by the Navy for putting 11 bay area shipyards into defense produc-

The strike was called May 10, halting work on $500,000,000 worth of Representatives of both the A. F. L. and C. I. O. unions joined in a statement after having heard the Navy's

"On account of the nature of the request of naval officers," this joint statement said, "which we know to be totally unsatisfactory to our membership, we regret we are unable to comply with the requests made

It was signed by E. F. Dillon and agents, and James Smith, business agent of the East Bay C. I. O. union The Navy had not yet made public the nature of its requests.

It was known that naval auther-Ities had suggested to union leaders that the machinists enroll under civil service, whereby they could obtain the same conditions that prevail at Mare Island Navy Yard and other Government-operated plants. These include vacations on pay and

Final Tribute Paid To Senator Harrison By Colleagues

Fellow-Lawmakers File By Flag-Draped Casket in Chamber

(Earlier Story on Page A-1.) Members of the Senate filed solemnly by the open casket of their late colleague, Senator Harrison, Democrat, of Mississippi, while the body was lying in state this afternoon in the chamber where he had served his country for 23 years. More than 40 Senators formed a lane through which the flag-draped casket was carried up the front steps of the Capitol and into the well of the Senate. Floral pieces were banked around the coffin, and two Capitol policeman formed a guard of honor during the afternoon.

After Senators and House members had marched in procession by the bier, other friends of the Senator were permitted to pass through the chamber Approximately 30 Senators will accompany the body to Gulfport, Miss., tonight for burial. The Senate met today, but adjourned out of respect for Senator Harrison.

The House met only briefly and heard tributes to the memory of Senator Harrison and adjourned.

eration of a bill to reorganize and a seven-member board was worked out late today at a conference between House leaders and Chairman tion Subcommittee of the District Committee

Representative Hunter, an Ohio Democrat, was promised that the measure would be allowed to be called up "out of order" either Tuesday July 1 or the following day under a unanimous consent agreement. Otherwise, it would not be considered until July 14, the next District day in the House.

Four Other Bills Delayed. A three-week delay in consideration of the bill faced the bill when the House adjourned early this afternoon out of respect to the late Senator Harrison of Mississippi. Four other District bills on the House calendar, however, must wait until July 14 for consideration. One would authorize small loan cominterest rate of 2 per cent a month on loans up to $500.

The three other bills would: 1. Place additional safeguards around the confidential records of and applicants. Amend Jobless Act.

Armored Forces Advancing On Entire East Frontier, Berlin Dispatch Reports

VICHY, France (AP).—Reports that the Germans had captured the Polish cities of Lemberg (Lwow), Grodno and Kristinopol reached military quarters tonight. In this theater, it appeared, the Germans were driving forward on both sides of the Pinsk marshes while the Rumanians were directly assaulting the Bessarabian frontier region of the Ukraine. Military circles here said it seemed certain the Germans were trying a double pincer against the Ukraine and the Soviet capital.

By the Associated Press. German and Rumanian troops were continuing their advance into Bessarabia today, the Germans reported, and a dispatch from Berlin said the first batches of Russian prisoners were coming to the rear. It was also said the German air force "very successfully" continued attacks or Russian military airports.

The advance into Bessarabia was reported by both D.N.B., the official German news agency, and the German radio. The latter said Nazi forces had crossed the Prut River, border between Rumania and Soviet Russia, and were continuing to advance after German artillery and the Luftwaffe had smashed Soviet border fortifications. The broadcast was heard by National Broadcasting
